From Financial Secretary Steve Dziuma –
3Q dues were expected by July 1st. 4Q is expected by October 1st. Please remember to pay for any lockers you have as soon as possible. New fees are as follows - $40/small $55 medium and $80/large.

Reminders!

1) Work Parties – For 2017 the usual mandatory work parties for each dues paying member less than 65 years old will apply. A $100 fine will be imposed for each work party a member does not complete.

2) A $75 event credit is included in your dues. This consists of three $25 credits which can be used simultaneously or at separate events in the WCFC dining room (Interclub events are excluded).

3) NO SMOKING at the bar or in the dining room. No parking on club grounds.

Club News!

1) Pool repairs are ongoing with the expectation of an opening by the end of June. Participation at each work party is still needed every Saturday morning.

2) A fundraiser to help defer the cost of pool repairs is currently taking place. The club is taking orders to sell engraved bricks which will be prominently and permanently displayed on club property (location still TBD). The cost is $250 per brick. Each brick can be engraved up to 29 characters (including spaces) on each of 3 lines. The bricks are a perfect way to honor a member, memorialize a loved one, to show your appreciation to the club or anything else you want to say. Each brick is guaranteed by the engraver to last a lifetime. Order forms are included in this mailing or can be downloaded from our web site
